Report of Jerome Hodges, Supt. N. C. Conference

It is with joy and deep gratitude to my Heavenly Father that I submit my annual report to you. God has been good and gracious to me during this year. I have been blessed with health and strength physically to go forward with the work assigned to me every day during the year. I rejoice to know that I still retain grace in my heart; appreciate the blood of Christ that sanctifies and the Holy Ghost that abides today more than ever before. I appreciate the blessed fellowship and the splendid cooperation that I have had with the ministers and the lay members of the Conference during the year. Everything has not been pleasant, we have had some real battles to fight, but the Lord has been with us and we have been able to settle all differences in a satisfactory way with all concerned so far as we know. We have some as faithful ministers in the N. C. Conference as can be found any where. They can be depended on to stand for the doctrine of the P. H. Church any where. Some of these old soldiers are growing old, they will soon get an honorable discharge from warfare here and go to their reward. While this is true, we rejoice to know that we have several fine young ministers enlisting in the Conference being trained under these old soldiers of the cross that will take their places and carry on the good work when the older ones are gone. Brethren, God needs every one of us. He has a place for each one of us in His great vineyard. Let us guard against the spirit of jealousy and clamoring for the places of others. The safest and happiest place for any one is in God's will. I exhort one and all here today to seek to know God's will in this Conference and then humbly submit to the same.

As pastor of the Goldsboro church my work has been as follows: Conducted 83 services, attended 96 other services conducted in connection with the church work, presided at four church conferences, made 207 pastoral visits in homes and hospitals, presided at 7 church board meetings, worked 8 days on church building, repairing, painting, etc. Conducted several funerals, conducted two baptismal services, performed several marriages. I received from the church provisions and cash, ... $251.40
My record shows that I have given this church for the various phases of the work, $55.10.

As Superintendent of the Conference I have visited every church in the Conference except 4. I have urged the churches to cooperate with their pastor, support them as well as to stand by and support all the different phases of the church work. I have presided over 16 Quarterly Conferences, presided over 4 Conference Board meetings, attended the General Conference, spent 13 days preparing for and attending the Bible Conference. I have attended Sunday School 50 times during the year, wrote several Hundred letters and cards, solicited and sent to the Publishing House several subscriptions for The Advocate, traveled several thousand miles, assisted pastors and local churches in several business meetings; assisted in several revival meetings, assisted in an effort to evangelize some new territory in the bounds of the Conference; paid one-half of my tithes in the Conference Treasury. I have paid tithes and given free will offerings out of the entire amount that I have received for all purposes during the year.

I have received the following amount from the Conference, which includes contributions from churches, individuals and Quarterly Conference offerings:

Goldsboro District	$192.25
Washington District	195.98
Tarboro District	219.62
Fayetteville District	211.30
Total	$819.15

I have spent for traveling expenses and other expenses in connection with carrying on the Conference work, $260.00.

In conclusion, I desire to thank the Conference for the confidence it placed in me in electing me to this office one year ago. I thank every one for their financial support. The Conference is under no obligations to me in the future because of services rendered in the past, I have done what I have cheerfully, willingly and gladly, for the good of the cause and the glory of God, and if you desire to elect some one else for another year, I shall be glad to step aside and cooperate with who ever he may be.

N. J. Medford, Assistant Superintendent.

I. H. Presley, Secretary.

C. B. Strickland, Treasurer.

A. H. Butler, member of Board.

By order of the Conference the Minutes of the Official Board meetings were read and adopted as read.

Report of Committee on Missions and Evangelism

We, your Committee on Missions and Evangelism, appreciate the great work that has been accomplished in the spread of the Gospel both in the homeland and in the foreign fields. But in view of the vast fields that are now white already unto harvest, we do humbly beseech each member of this Conference to give their most earnest and careful attention to the following recommendations:

1. That one service be held at each Annual Conference in behalf of Foreign Missions.

2. That the cause of missions be presented at each of the Quarterly Conferences during the year.

3. That each evangelist preach at least one sermon and take one offering in behalf of foreign missions during each meeting and wherever he finds a church that does not have a Missionary Society seek to organize one.

4. That each pastor strive earnestly to help his church realize the great need of the lost world by preaching at least one sermon each quarter on foreign missions and by encouraging his members to be active in evangelizing the new fields in adjoining communities.

5. That every church in response to the appeal for a special offering for the erection of a mission building in Shaukiwan, China, set apart the fifth Sunday in October to receive this offering (This is an urgent need).

6. That each pastor take an active part in organizing a missionary society in each of his churches, urging each member to join.

7. That the president of each missionary society keep himself (or herself) informed as to all the present needs of the field and present them in the way he deems best to the society.

8. That the deacons and pastors cooperate with the president of missionary societies in having the regular missionary programs and allowing nothing to hinder the offerings.

9. That a special fund be set apart in the Conference Treasury for the purpose of aiding in the evangelization of new territory within the bounds of North Carolina Conference.

10. That every evangelist seek to enter new territory, even though it has to be done by great self denial and sacrifice.

11. That earnest prayer be made by all for the salvation of the lost, both in the homeland and on the foreign field.

12. That each pastor urge each member of his church to pay at least one penny a day for missions.

Mavis Lee Oakley,
W. H. Turner,
I. D. Dickens.

Report of Committee on Orphanage Work

Recognizing orphanage work as one important phase of Christian endeavor and that "to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction" is an essential evidence of "pure and undefiled religion before God and the Father," we, your Committee would suggest the following activities:

1. That all our churches, either in their services conducted by the pastor, or in their Sunday Schools by the Superintendents, take special Thanksgiving offering about Thanksgiving Day for the orphanage work.

2. That all such special Thanksgiving offerings be made in cooperation with The N. C. Orphan Association that appeals to every citizen of N. C. to contribute an amount equal to one day's wages or one day's profit from their business or profession, to the orphanage of their choice.

3. That we re-affirm our sympathy for, and interest in the work of the Falcon Orphanage and recommend it to the favorable consideration of all our people as being worthy of our most liberal support.

4. Since the years of depression have caused such a falling off in our contributions to the orphanage as to leave a deficit in its operations; and the necessity of operating its own high school faculties has greatly increased its expenses, we urge all our churches and Sunday Schools to make as liberal offerings each month to this work as can be consistent with our ability and the proper consideration for other phases of our work.

Respectfully submitted,

M. H. Alexander,
J. A. Culbreth,
Committee.

Report of Finance Committee

Hear the Word of the Lord: "Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven and pour you out a blessing that there shall not be room enough to receive it." Our Savior also gave His approval of tithing by saying: "This ought ye to have done."

We feel that our Conference is suffering as a result of not conforming as a whole, to the above Scripture. Therefore, we recommend;

1. That each pastor, with the cooperation of the local church board, at their earliest convenience, after this session of the Conference, get together and organize to execute the financial system as provided in our Discipline Page 22, paragraph 23, as follows: "We as a church believe that one-tenth of our income belongs to God, and recommend that this tithe be paid into the treasury of the local church."

2. That the local church tithe from its treasury into the Conference Treasury.

3. That each Conference member pay at least fifty per cent of his tithes into the Annual Conference Treasury.

4. That the first tithe from the Annual Conference Treasury be paid into the General Conference Treasury.

5. That the Conference Board set aside as much as 20 per cent of the second tithe received into the Conference Treasury for evangelistic funds, to extend the work in new fields. This fund to be disbursed at the discretion of the Conference Official Board.

6. That each pastor, so far as is possible, see that his members measure up to the requirement of our Discipline, paragraph 8, page 51 in regard to the missionary work.

7. That the Conference Supt. give his entire time to the Conference work.

8. That $200.00 be appropriated for our General Supt.; $25.00 for Conference Sect.; $25.00 for Conference Treas.; $70.00 for Minutes.

C. B. Strickland,
E. S. Beasley,
D. J. Little,
Committee.

Report of Committee on Sunday Schools and Pentecostal Young People's Societies

This Committee recognizes in the Great Commission of the Master the duty to teach as well as to preach. We, therefore, offer the following suggestions in our report:

Sunday Schools:

1. That our churches adopt as early as possible the Sunday School Constitution accepted by the last quadrennial session of the General Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church and adopted as published in the Minutes of that session.

2. That on one Sunday each month a special offering in addition to the regular offering be taken for the Falcon Orphanage.

3. That each Sunday School take steps to provide a Sunday School library for the use of its members.

4. That all our Sunday Schools assume responsibility for some practical service outside of the school itself, such as supporting some child in the orphanage, or supplying the needs of some worthy member of the church that may be in need.

5. That each teacher show a personal interest in the members of their class by sending a card to any member who has been absent for as many as two Sundays in succession, assuring them that they are being missed and inviting them back.

Pentecostal Young People's Society:

1. We believe this phase of our work has made reasonable progress, and is coming into more favorable recognition by our church and our people. In view of this renewed interest we recommend that each church in the North Carolina Conference give liberally of its support in time and prayer to the P. Y. P. S.

2. That in each Quarterly Conference district there be appointed by the Conference officers a District Chairman and Secretary.

3. We insist that our local societies send a report to the Conference President and Secretary-Treasurer quarterly. We solicit the cooperation of our people for our Conference officers.

4. That each local society send 10 per cent of the funds in its treasury to the Conference P. Y. P. S. Treasurer for defraying the expenses of the Conference work, and that the traveling expenses of the Conference officers be defrayed when the churches and societies are visited.

5. That each society use the programs in the P. Y. P. S. Official Organ, "Youth's Leader," and work to secure as many subscriptions as is possible in their church. We favor the supplementing of the program in the P. Y. P. S. Magazine with material from the P. H. Advocate and other sources.

Respectfully submitted,

T. O. Todd,
B. K. Weeks,
Harvey E. Morris,
Committee.

Report of Committee on Prohibition and Public Morals

1. We, the Committee on Prohibition and Public Morals, recommend that all members of the P. H. Church who are of voting age, and who have not registered, be sure to register on October 28th as there is but one day to register. If canvassing be necessary to call to mind this important duty, then do this and as much as is consistent in all earnestness see that our people go to the poles, even if sacrifices have to be made in carrying some of them, in order to have them vote on Nov. 7, against the repeal of the 18th Amendment.

2. We as an organization want to put ourselves on record as utterly opposed to the use or sale of whiskey or any other intoxicating beverages.

3. In view of the fact that the repeal of the 18th Amendment will bring increased temptation to drink, we urge all our preachers to preach more often and more strongly against the use of all intoxicants.

4. We also recommend that our members refrain from patronizing service stations on the Sabbath, and from buying or selling or in any other way desecrating the Sabbath day.

5. We feel that the bond of matrimony should not be entered into too lightly, but that it should be held to be more sacred and that the ties should be severed by death only or some legitimate cause warranted by the Word of God. We also recommend that our preachers refuse to marry any divorced couple who were divorced for any purpose other than that warranted by the Word of God.

In conclusion we earnestly urge that our members take a more definite stand against all forms of immorality.

Respectfully submitted,

J. G. Spivey,
R. E. Lee,
W. Eddie Morris.

Report of Committee on Education

The Bible is the Book of books. We believe its influence is indispensible in building genuine character. Since our public schools are sadly neglecting the moral and spiritual development that may be realized by Christian influence and Bible training, we believe that every facility of the church and its auxilaries should be used to make the principles of the Bible real in the hearts and lives of the people. Therefore, we recommend:

1. That our people encourage systematic Bible reading among the children and adults.

2. That our Sunday Schools encourage teacher training, use every possible means to educate our people in the Bible in the light of Pentecostal truth, that Bible studies be conducted in all the churches. That the programs in the young people's societies be so arranged that religious instruction will feature each program.

3. That all ministers be diligent in studying the Bible and helps, so they may rightly divide the word of truth. That the Conference encourage Bible study by having Bible Conferences, and Bible studies in connection with the Quarterly Conferences.

4. That all our religious leaders encourage Christian education by placing the Pentecostal Holiness Advocate, other religious periodicals, and good books in every home possible.

5. That one-fifth of the money paid into the general treasury by this Conference be placed in the Educational Fund.

6. That all our churches cooperate with the Board of Education in raising funds for the Church School at Franklin Springs, Georgia.

7. That this Conference put forth special effort to help students attend the Church School.
